MONDAYS: Music Theory and Music Appreciation

All classes will be held at UofSC String Project (851 Park St.) building unless indicated otherwise. Virtual participation through Zoom is available.

Class Descriptions:

Music Theory: Learn about the basics of music theory. We begin with the basics of reading pitches in multiple clefs. Other topics include scales, intervals, triads, chords, rhythm, modes, and more

Music Appreciation/History: Want to learn more about how music evolved? We will cover musical periods from Medieval to the present day. You will learn about the major composers and works from each period. Plus, there will be topic days that include film music, band music, and women composers. We will also examine how other elements of culture (education, art, science, literature, etc.) helped to influence music.
